

1. Uploading Your Profile

User A uploads her profile.

User B uploads several different wildly divergent profiles.

You'll begin your Google Romance romance by uploading your profile.

Note: those who generally favor the “throw enough stuff at the wall” approach to online dating might find it useful to employ our Batch Profile Uploading option.

2. Meeting Your Soulmate

User A does a Soulmate Search and reviews dozens of intriguing search results before finding her perfect match.

User B does a Soulmate Search, then hits "I'm Feeling Lucky"

When you do a Soulmate Search, your deeply personal and potentially life-altering search results are produced solely by computer algorithm, without human intervention of any kind.

Note: depending on your personality, you may or may not find this reassuring.

3. Contextual Pre-Date Advertising

The day before their Contextual Date, User A gets a cell phone text message suggesting she call a Psychic Hotline to learn about User B. She accepts.

The day before their Contextual Date, User B gets a cell phone text message suggesting he send a bouquet of peonies to User A. He declines.

It's important to all of us on the Google Romance team that the ads you see during your Contextual Date be useful and enjoyable, not intrusive and annoying.

4. Meeting for Drinks

User B inadvertently reveals that he's kind of full of himself.

Note: User A's telepsychic predicted this.

Your Contextual Date will begin with drinks at a participating upscale neighborhood bistro. Don't forget that Google Mobile offers numerous opportunities for impressing your date with quick references to news headlines, factoids and tidbits.

5. The Main Course

During dinner conversation subliminally influenced by the persistent drone of Personal Contextual Dating History-inspired travel, entertainment, home furnishing and financial services ads, User A and User B discover that they actually do enjoy considerable socioeconomic compatibility.

As part of our effort to make your romantic endeavors more useful and relevant, we can collect information about your Contextual Dating habits in order to focus every aspect of your Contextual Date on your (and your potential soulmate's) particular strengths and weaknesses, likes and dislikes, turn-ons and turn-offs.

Note: We only amass, data-crunch and wield your Personal Contextual Dating History with your permission, and when you're signed in to your Google Account.

6. Unexpected Results

User B tries to be playful with User A, who pretends to enjoy it. Later on, when he tries to kiss her goodnight, he gets all cheek.

We're constantly working to improve the quality of your Contextual Dating results. If you encounter inaccurate, disappointing or otherwise cosmically unfair romantic results that you'd like to bring to our attention, please submit a report here.

7. Contextual Dating Advice

A timely Google Video consultation with an accredited Contextual Dating Advisor helps User B realize the bread thing was a mistake. He calls User A to offer a charmingly humble apology.

Got pressing questions about your Contextual Date? More than 500 carefully screened Contextual Dating Advisors are ready to answer your question for as little as $2.50 (per minute), usually within 24 hours and conceivably much, much sooner, depending on your levels of personal desperation and financial werewithal and the quality of your GPS signal and mobile plan.

8. Contextual Courtship

User B employs Gmail, Gmail Chat, Google Talk, Google Desktop Sidebar, Picasa 2, Google Maps, Google Earth, Google Local, Google Suggest, Blogger and an impressive array of highly relevant Contextual Courtship advertisements to conduct a prolonged, multifaceted play for User A...

...which turns out to be largely successful.

And you'll live happily, and contextually, ever after.
